Great Summer Festivals in All 50 States

Get Festive

There are plenty of reasons to look forward to summer, not the least of which is the endless variety of festivals that take place in every state in the country. From music and film festivals to celebrations of aviation and automobiles, the summer is teeming with block parties and lawn concerts, street fairs and food trucks. It's festival season, and here are some of the very best themed gatherings from across the United States.

New Jersey: Festival of Ballooning

Soar high at the annual Festival of Ballooning in Readington, where thrillseekers gather for North America's largest summertime hot air balloon and music festival. Activities include concerts, featuring acts like the Beach Boys, fireworks, a 5K run, yoga, and of, course, hot air balloon rides. Early bird tickets to the July 26-28 event are $24 for adults and $10 for kids, although there are fees, and at $240-$295, balloon rides add a significant cost.
